YOUTH is not always served. Sidney H. Hatch, the Chicago runner, who finished third in the Boston marathon and won the St. Louis marathon, is 33 years of age. But he has always taken the best of care of his hody and youth remains , with him, despite his years.

NEW YORK will have decisions in its boxing bouts if the boom to land Jack Skelly on the commission aucceeds. The sport writer is now conducting a strong campaign for a place on the new commission and has a good chance to succeed. No decision bouts have their faults but it is possible to go too far the other way and if Skelly lands on the commission he will do well not to become overenthusiastic. Confine the bouts to ten rounds with decisions and do not try for 20 round affairs.

IN JUSTICE to manager Bill Hurley of the Las Cruces team, it must be stated that the recent comment in these columns about conduct of a military baseball team at Las Cruces did not come from him but from a fan up the valley and another man who happened to travel into the city on the same train as the ball team.

THE weather man was not very kind to the local baseball fans when he dished out some wintry blasts after six weeks of lovely spring weather.

MANAGER McCLOSKEY made a We wise move in postponing the Thursday game. The high, cold wind would have made baseball a farce. This sort of weather can't last forever and when it is over we can look for a much better brand of baseball.

New Manager of Chicago Team Is a Firm Believer in Speed, Though His Latest Theory Remains to Be Proved; Many Pennant Winners of Past Have Not Been the Fastest Teams of the Year.

CLARENCE HOWLAND, the new manager of the Sox, has come into big league baseball with one big theory. He is a firm believer in speed. He declares it is more than one third of baseball.

Speed, of course, is an extremely desirable part of a hall club, yet speed alone does not win. The Boston Red Sox were faster before they won a world's champlonship than they were the year they won it. Detroit as a champlonship team did not have great apeed, in spite of Cobb's terrific fleetness. The Cobs, at their best, were only moderately fast, and the Athletics never were the fastest team in their league.

Braves Not Fast.

Last season along came theory Stafflings with a team just mederately speedy and won by not running the bases; that is, they stole fewer bases than almost any club in their league.

Freyer, one of the cleverest men on the bases and a man with sufficient speed, and head to steal about 59 bases a dangerous on the native Meson is now

For Once Fans Cheered When Umpire Bounced His Mask on Player's Head, but Tener May Attach Fine to Rigler; Herzog's Choke 'Em Policy Is Resolving Itself Into Rough Tactics.

For once the crowd took sides with the official against a player, the appliance merely evidencing the fans' approval of the hadding of the umpirical mask on the couch of Choke-'em Herzog, Saturday.

Even old man Dope, who took a chance outside the bonn proof for the first time since he disclosed to the world that the Yanks had a first division chance, gave the ump a hand. Caught in the act, Dope was asked what he saw in an umpire to applied. The not for Rigler the umpire, but for Rigler tho man. This bird has been officiating a number of greats—a good many more than Herzog has been a manager. Thus far he never previously had bounced a mask or his fist off any player's been, in public. I, therefore, conclude that what Herzog did or said offended him grously. Not as an official but as a man He took a man's action in the matter."

Punish Them is the Hank Holl.

President Tenner, however, is not likely to take Dope's view of the situation and his official ruling will probably be a fine for the ump and suspension for Harzow—plus a fine. Klem was souked for 250 for striking Roger. Bresmahan, after a game. Fineeran was eased out of the league for letting Mages hit him and get away with it.

Emegic of good reading and his tactics on the field spices the fane' interest, but it is not for haseball that he's interest, but it is not for haseball that he's interest, but it is not for haseball that he's interest, but it is not for haseball that he's interest, but it is not for haseball that he's interest, but it is not for haseball that he's interest, but it is not for haseball that he's interest, but it is not for haseball that he's interest, but it is not for haseball that he's interest, but it is not for haseball that he's interest, but it is not for haseball that he's interest, but it is not for haseball that he's interest, but it is not for haseball that he's interest.

Queensberry stuff he puts into the fray.

Some like it, some don't. At best it's a relic of rowdyism. It's hard to see where reminding a man of family troubles or touching his personal sore spots verbally, at a critical stage of the play, has a pince in basehall. It's five levee stuff, Bo.

The best of it is it only gets by now and then. Herzog his never arrived anywhere with this policy, which is probably borrowed from his teacher, John McGraw. Thus far, Cincinnati, under Herzog, has shown two springs finables and one rank finish. The second rankness is on its way, judging by the Cardinal series.

Concentration, Not Courage.

It is, therefore, just as reasonable to cut off two innings for any purpose outside of accessity as it is to cut a three-act play at the second act.

Speed Up the Games.

The next step coming in the National is to gear up the games. The american league rule of putting a new ball in play when a long foul is hit, without waiting for the return should be adopted. Umpires could also speed up the batters a bit.

Play for the 'ans' convenience, Mr. Magnates. Perhaps the shrinken gais receipts will swell again.

About the Yanks.

About the Yanke.

Old Man Dope, after suggesting the "info" that the Yanke suggesting the "info" that the Yanke had a first division look-in and might be the "dark horse" of the American league race, has been viewing the struggle through the periscope.

There yanks don't figure to win the flag," he amounced to an interviewer, through the speaking tube. "I didn't say they were going to win any pennant. I quit that sort of stuff after Stalling's machine hit me last season. The insurance people said I was an extra hanardous risk and refused to leave a policy on me. Mir os mixing up with that pennant traffic any more.

issue a policy on me. An on mining up with that pennant traffic any more.

"All I said was that the Tanks won more games for the past ten weeks of the 1914 semson than any club in the American league but the Athletics.

"As the Athletics have been shot to pieces and the Yanks here streagthened since that time, you—well, deave your own conclusions." I will say that I have a little monlike to the Bed Sor myself, but this is strictly not for publication.

Husry, John, Yeo'll Starve.

If John McGraw loves that $10,000 a year salary, he had beiter whip that don't care a rap, irondiad contract rowd of players into winning form. He's likely to break up the league if his club still lingers to a lowly berth. Viniting teams deceand on taking a bank roll out of New York each trio; they need the money worse than ever this year. But they'll not get it with the Giants hast and the Yanks had a successful.
